COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-6225

July 16, 2015

President Barack Obama
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The Iran Nuclear Agreement Review Act, a bill which 98 Senators and 400 Representatives supported and you signed, established a 60-day period for Congress to consider the nuclear agreement. We are deeply concerned that your administration plans to enable the United Nations Security Council to vote on the agreement before the United States Congress can do the same.

Doing so would be contrary to your statement that "it's important for the American people and Congress to get a full opportunity to review this deal...our national security policies are stronger and more effective when they are subject to the scrutiny and transparency that democracy demands."

We urge you to postpone the vote at the United Nations until after Congress considers this agreement.

Sincerely,

Bob Corker
Chairman
