AN ACT

To promote access for United States diplomats and other officials, journalists, and other citizens to Tibetan areas of the People's Republic of China, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Reciprocal Access to 3 Tibet Act of 2018”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The Government of the People’s Republic of 7 China does not grant United States diplomats and 8 other officials, journalists, and other citizens access 9 to China on a basis that is reciprocal to the access 10 that the Government of the United States grants
11 Chinese diplomats and other officials, journalists, 12 and citizens.

13 (2) The Government of China imposes greater 14 restrictions on travel to Tibetan areas than to other 15 areas of China.

16 (3) Officials of China have stated that Tibet is 17 open to foreign visitors.

18 (4) The Government of China is promoting 19 tourism in Tibetan areas, and at the Sixth Tibet
20 Work Forum in August 2015, Premier Li Keqiang
21 called for Tibet to build “major world tourism des-22 tinations”.

23 (5) The Government of China requires for-24 eigners to obtain permission from the Tibet Foreign 25 and Overseas Affairs Office or from the Tibet Tour-
26 ism Bureau to enter the Tibet Autonomous Region,

1       a restriction that is not imposed on travel to any 2       other provincial-level jurisdiction in China.

3                 (6) The Department of State reports that—

4                         (A) officials of the Government of the 5                         United States submitted 39 requests for diplo-
6                         matic access to the Tibet Autonomous Region 7                         between May 2011 and July 2015, but only 8                         four were granted; and 9                         (B) when such requests are granted, diplo-10                         matic personnel are closely supervised and given 11                         few opportunities to meet local residents not ap-12                         proved by authorities.

13                 (7) The Government of China delayed United 14                 States consular access for more than 48 hours after 15                 an October 28, 2013, bus crash in the Tibet Autono-16                 mous Region, in which three citizens of the United 17                 States died and more than a dozen others, all from 18                 Walnut, California, were injured, undermining the 19                 ability of the Government of the United States to 20                 provide consular services to the victims and their 21                 families, and failing to meet China's obligations
22                 under the Convention on Consular Relations, done 23                 at Vienna April 24, 1963 (21 UST 77).

24                 (8) Following a 2015 earthquake that trapped
25                 dozens of citizens of the United States in the Tibet

1 Autonomous Region, the United States Consulate 2 General in Chengdu faced significant challenges in 3 providing emergency consular assistance due to a 4 lack of consular access.

5 (9) The Country Reports on Human Rights
6 Practices for 2015 of the Department of State stat-
7 ed “With the exception of a few highly controlled 8 trips, the Chinese government also denied multiple 9 requests by foreign diplomats for permission to visit 10 the TAR.”.

11 (10) Tibetan-Americans, attempting to visit
12 their homeland, report having to undergo a discrimi-13 natory visa application process, different from what 14 is typically required, at the Chinese embassy and 15 consulates in the United States, and often find their 16 requests to travel denied.

17 (11) The Country Reports on Human Rights
18 Practices for 2016 of the Department of State stat-19 ed “The few visits to the TAR by diplomats and 20 journalists that were allowed were tightly controlled 21 by local authorities.”.

22 (12) A September 2016 article in the Wash-
23 ington Post reported that “The Tibet Autonomous 24 Region . . . is harder to visit as a journalist than 25 North Korea.”.

(13) The Government of China has failed to respond positively to requests from the Government of the United States to open a consulate in Lhasa, Tibet Autonomous Region.

(14) The Foreign Correspondents Club of China reports that—

13 (C) although the 2008 rules allow journal-
14 ists to travel freely in other parts of China, Ti-15 betan areas outside such Region remain “effec-16 tively off-limits to foreign reporters”.

(A) must be accompanied at all times by a government-designated tour guide;

(B) are rarely granted permission to enter the region by road:

(C) are largely barred from visiting around the March anniversary of a 1959 Tibetan uprising; and

(D) are banned from visiting the area where Larung Gar, the world's largest center for the study of Tibetan Buddhism, and the site of a large-scale campaign to expel students and demolish living quarters, is located.

(16) Foreign visitors also face restrictions in their ability to travel freely in Tibetan areas outside the Tibet Autonomous Region.

(17) The Government of the United States generally allows journalists and other citizens of China to travel freely within the United States. The Government of the United States requires diplomats from China to notify the Department of State of their travel plans, and in certain situations, the Government of the United States requires such diplomats to obtain approval from the Department of State before travel. However, where approval is required, it is almost always granted expeditiously.

1       Government of China on the situation in Tibetan 2       areas, even as the Government of China restricts the 3       ability of citizens of the United States to travel to 4       Tibetan areas to gain their own perspective.

5                     (19) Chinese diplomats based in the United 6       States generally avail themselves of the freedom to 7       travel to United States cities and lobby city councils, 8       mayors, and governors to refrain from passing reso-9       lutions, issuing proclamations, or making statements
10      of concern on Tibet.

11                  (20) The Government of China characterizes
12      statements made by officials of the United States
13      about the situation in Tibetan areas as inappro-14      priate interference in the internal affairs of China.

7 for the following five years, the Secretary of State shall 8 submit to the appropriate congressional committees, and 9 make available to the public on the website of the Depart-10 ment of State, a report that includes an assessment of 11 the level of access Chinese authorities granted diplomats 12 and other officials, journalists, and tourists from the 13 United States to Tibetan areas, including—

(1) a comparison with the level of access granted to other areas of China;

16 (2) a comparison between the levels of access
17 granted to Tibetan and non-Tibetan areas in rel-18 evant provinces;

19 (3) a comparison of the level of access in the 20 reporting year and the previous reporting year; and

(4) a description of the required permits and other measures that impede the freedom to travel in Tibetan areas.

(b) CONSOLIDATION.—After the issuance of the first report required by subsection (a), the Secretary of State

1 is authorized to incorporate subsequent reports required
2 by subsection (a) into other publicly available, annual re-3 ports produced by the Department of State, provided they 4 are submitted to the appropriate congressional committees 5 in a manner specifying that they are being submitted in 6 fulfillment of the requirements of this Act.

7 SEC. 5. INADMISSIBILITY OF CERTAIN ALIENS.

8 (a) INELIGIBILITY FOR VISAS.—No individual whom 9 the Secretary of State has determined to be substantially 10 involved in the formulation or execution of policies related 11 to access for foreigners to Tibetan areas may be eligible 12 to receive a visa to enter the United States or be admitted 13 to the United States if the Secretary of State determines 14 that—

15 (1)(A) the requirement for specific official per-16 mission for foreigners to enter the Tibetan Autono-17 mous Region remains in effect; or

18 (B) such requirement has been replaced by 19 a regulation that has a similar effect and re-20 quires foreign travelers to gain a level of per-21 mission to enter the Tibet Autonomous Region
22 that is not required for travel to other provinces 23 in China; and

24 (2) restrictions on travel by diplomats and 25 other officials, journalists, and citizens of the United

1 States to areas designated as “Tibetan Autono-2 mous” in the provinces of Sichuan, Qinghai, 3 Yunnan, and Gansu of China are greater than any 4 restrictions on travel by such officials and citizens to 5 areas in such provinces that are not so designated.

6 (b) CURRENT VISAS REVOKED.—The Secretary of 7 State shall revoke, in accordance with section 221(i) of

1       (d) WAIVER FOR NATIONAL INTEREST.—

2                 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State may 3                 waive the application of subsection (a) or (b) in the 4                 case of an alien if the Secretary determines that 5                 such a waiver—

6                         (A) is necessary to permit the United 7                 States to comply with the Agreement Regarding 8                 the Headquarters of the United Nations, signed 9                 at Lake Success June 26, 1947, and entered 10                 into force November 21, 1947 (TIAS 1676), or 11                 any other applicable international obligation of 12                 the United States; or

13                         (B) is in the national interest of the 14                 United States.

15                 (2) NOTIFICATION.—Upon granting a waiver 16                 under paragraph (1), the Secretary of State shall 17                 submit to the appropriate congressional committees 18                 a document detailing the evidence and justification 19                 for the necessity of such waiver, including, if such 20                 waiver is granted pursuant to paragraph (1)(B), 21                 how such waiver relates to the national interest of 22                 the United States.

23 SEC. 6. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

24         It is the sense of Congress that the Secretary of 25         State, when granting diplomats and other officials from

1 China access to parts of the United States, including con-2 sular access, should take into account the extent to which 3 the Government of China grants diplomats and other offi-4 cials from the United States access to parts of China, in-5 cluding the level of access afforded to such diplomats and 6 other officials to Tibetan areas.

Passed the House of Representatives September 25, 2018.
