SENATE

Report 115–??

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES REPORT

MARCH 28, 2019.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. RISCH, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, submitted the following

REPORT

INTRODUCTION BY SENATOR JAMES E. RISCH, CHAIRMAN¹

The Committee on Foreign Relations maintained an ambitious agenda during the 115th Congress. The committee and its subcommittees conducted a total of 181 sessions, comprised of hearings and briefings on significant U.S. foreign policy priorities as well as consideration of legislation, nominations, and treaties. Committee activity included the following:

- Establishing the United States International Development Finance Corporation to promote the participation and growth of private sector development in countries with low and middle-income economies and countries transitioning from non-market to market economies in order to complement U.S. assistance and foreign policy objectives. This bipartisan, bicameral effort was realized in the "Better Utilization Act of Investments Leading to Development Act of 2018" or the "BUILD Act of 2018." The BUILD Act was introduced by Chairman Corker on February 27, 2018, and the committee held a hearing on modernizing development finance on May 10, 2018. The bill was marked up by the committee on June 26, 2018, and it was ultimately incorporated into H.R. 302, the "Federal Aviation Administration Reauthorization Act of 2018," which passed the Senate on October 3, 2018. It was signed by the President on October 5, 2018, becoming Public Law No: 115–254.
- Responding to aggression from Iran, Russia, and North Korea, the committee developed sanctions provisions that were ultimately incorporated into H.R. 3364, the "Countering America's Adversaries Through Sanctions Act," or CAATSA. In response to Iran, the committee reported S. 722, "Countering Iran's Destabilizing Activities Act of 2017" on May 25, 2017. Subsequently, Russian and North Korean sanctions were incorporated into the broader CAATSA sanctions package with key support from the committee. CAATSA passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 419–3 on July 25, 2017 and the Senate by a vote of 98 to 2 on July 27, 2017. It was signed into law by the President on August 2, 2017 (Public Law No. 115– 44). In addition to developing the legislation that ultimately became CAATSA, the committee, in conjunction with the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, held a series of hearings focused on U.S.-Russia relations.

¹This review and report of activities of the Committee on Foreign Relations during the 115th Congress is submitted in response to the requirements of Rule XXVI 8(b) of the Standing Rules of the Senate, which stipulate that all standing committees report to the Senate, not later than March 31 of each odd-numbered year, on its legislative activities during the preceding Congress.

- Imposing consequences on the Palestinian Authority for its support for acts of terrorism that have claimed American lives, including an American student in Tel Aviv. The committee marked up S. 1697, the Taylor Force Act, a bill to condition certain forms of assistance to the West Bank and Gaza on steps by the Palestinian Authority to end violence directed against Israeli and United States citizens. It called on the Palestinian Authority to cease support for individuals and related family members of individuals who commit acts of terrorism. The bill was reported by the committee on September 6, 2017. It was then incorporated into H.R. 1625, the "Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2018," which was signed into law on March 23, 2018 and became Public Law No: 115–141.
- Undertaking efforts to improve State Department oversight and strengthen its functions in order to advance the interests of the American people. S. 1631, the "Department of State Authorities Act, Fiscal Year 2018" was marked up by the committee and reported on September 6, 2017 in an effort to improve embassy construction and cost savings, require confirmation of special envoys, and ensure Congress would play a productive role in the reorganization of the department. It also would have authorized the State Department's Office of Global Women's Issues, the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor, and an Assistant Secretary for International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs, as well as the establishment of an Office of International Disability Rights.
- Recommitting to the fight against HIV/AIDS by extending the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) for another five years. PEPFAR was established in 2003 as an emergency response to the global AIDS pandemic, primarily on the continent of Africa, and has since been extended three times. S. 3476, the "PEPFAR Extension Act of 2018," co-authored by Chairman Corker and Ranking Member Menendez, extended PEPFAR authorities and improved oversight provisions through Fiscal Year 2023 to ensure life-saving prevention and treatment services would remain available to those in need. It was marked up by the committee on September 26, 2018. The House version of this legislation, H.R. 6651, passed the House on November 13, 2018. H.R. 6651 then passed the Senate on November 28, 2018 and was signed by the President on December 11, 2018, becoming Public Law No: 115–305.

- Bolstering the committee's dedication to upholding human rights and ending the global tragedy of human trafficking. In October 2018, the committee reported S. 1862, a bill to amend the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 to modify the criteria for determining whether countries are meeting the minimum standards for the elimination of human trafficking, and H.R. 2200, the Frederick Douglass Trafficking Victims Prevention and Protection Reauthorization Act of 2018. S. 1862 passed the Senate by voice vote on December 17, 2018 and the House on December 21, 2018 by a vote of 370-0. It was signed into law on January 9, 2019 (Public Law No. 115-427). H.R. 2200 passed the Senate by voice vote on December 17, 2018 and the House by a vote of 368 to 7 on December 21, 2018. It was signed into law on January 8, 2019 (Public Law No. 115-425). The committee also held hearings on the fight to end global slavery and the release of the annual Trafficking in Persons (TIP) Report from the State Department.
- Responding to food crises while promoting agriculture-led economic growth through S. 2269, a bill to reauthorize the Global Food Security Act of 2016 for five additional years. The bill amended the Global Food Security Act of 2016 to extend through Fiscal Year 2023 authorities and transparency requirements for a comprehensive global food security strategy that catalyzes agriculture-led economic growth and reduces long-term dependence on U.S. food assistance. It also extends through Fiscal Year 2023 the international disaster assistance and emergency food security programs, as authorized in the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961. In extending the Global Food Security Act, the committee reaffirmed its commitment to addressing the full continuum of food security, from providing the flexibility needed to stretch emergency food aid dollars farther and saving more lives, to enabling communities to grow their own way out of hunger and poverty. S. 2269 was reported by the committee on May 22, 2018 and passed by the full Senate on June 19, 2018. It was passed by the House on September 28, 2018 and signed into law on October 11, 2018, becoming Public Law No: 115-266.
- Considering and reporting the Marrakesh Treaty to Facilitate Access to Published Works for Persons Who Are Blind, Visually Impaired, or Otherwise Print Disabled, which will facilitate access to books and other published materials for the blind. The committee held a hearing on the treaty on April 18, 2018, with testimony from the State Department and other key stakeholders, including representatives for the National Federation of the Blind, the Association of American Publishers, and the Library Copyright Alliance, all of which supported the U.S. ratification of the treaty and the bill to implement it. The resolution of advice and consent to ratification for this treaty was agreed to by the full Senate on June 28, 2018. Chairman Corker and Ranking Member Menendez also cosponsored S. 2559, the Marrakesh Treaty Implementation Act, which passed both Houses of Congress and was signed into law on October 9, 2018 (Public Law No. 115-261).

• In addition to the Marrakesh Treaty, the committee also approved five other treaties. The committee reported two extradition treaties—one with the Republic of Serbia and one with the Republic of Kosovo, on June 7, 2018. Resolutions of advice and consent to each of these treaties were agreed to by the full Senate on July 26, 2018. The committee reported treaties on the delimitation of maritime boundaries with the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Kiribati on May 15, 2018. Resolutions of advice and consent to each of these treaties were agreed to on July 26, 2018. In addition, the committee reported the U.N. Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade on September 12, 2018, and a resolution of advice and consent to ratification of this treaty was agreed to by the Senate on January 2, 2019.

The table below is a tabulation of the legislation in this report.
