7 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

8 Congress makes the following findings:

9 (1) Adopted by the Organization of American
10 States (in this Act referred to as the “OAS”) on Oc-11 tober 21, 2020, the Resolution Restoring Democratic 12 Institutions and Respect for Human Rights in Nica-
13 ragua Through Free and Fair Elections (in this sec-14 tion referred to as the “OAS Resolution”) reiterated
15 hemispheric concern that the government of Presi-
16 dent Daniel Ortega in Nicaragua has failed to re-

1 lease all political prisoners and implement agreed-
2 upon measures to ensure freedom of expression.

3 (2) The OAS Resolution called on the Ortega
4 government to accept the deployment of domestic 5 and international electoral observation missions and 6 outlined a need for timely, inclusive negotiations to 7 achieve meaningful electoral reforms, including the 8 modernization of the Supreme Electoral Council, the 9 revitalization of a pluralistic political process, and an 10 independent audit of Nicaraguan voter rolls.

11 (3) A November 19, 2019, report from the OAS
12 High Level Commission on Nicaragua noted the Or-13 tega government had engaged in significant efforts 14 since April 2018 to curtail the fundamental rights of 15 the citizens of Nicaragua, including repeated acts of 16 police intimidation and at least 325 murders, which 17 were predominately committed by government secu-
18 rity forces.

19 (4) On April 21, 2018, Nicaraguan journalist
20 Ángel Gahona was killed while broadcasting live on 21 social protests in the country. Since April 2018, the 22 Ortega government has increased its harassment of 23 independent media, which includes December 2019
24 police raids of the digital newspaper Confidencial
25 and the 100% Noticias news channel, and a Sep-

1 tember 2020 court-ordered seizure of assets belonging
2 to independent broadcaster Nicavision Canal 12.

3 (5) Since 2007, family members of President
4 Daniel Ortega and their political allies have pur-
5 chased over a dozen TV channels, radio stations,
6 and online news sites in Nicaragua, including Canal
7 4, 8, and 13, Radio Nicaragua, and El 19 Digital,
8 to increase pro-government media coverage and si-
9 lence media coverage critical of the government.

10 (6) Sandinista National Liberation Front mem-
11 bers of the National Assembly of Nicaragua, with 12 support from the Ortega government, recently ap-
13 proved legislation to obstruct citizen mobilization 14 and codify the persecution of political opponents, in-15 cluding—

16 (A) the Foreign Agents Regulation Law on 17 October 15, 2020, which requires civil society,
18 nongovernmental organizations, and citizens 19 who receive funds originating from abroad to 20 register as “foreign agents”, and bars them
21 from engaging in domestic political activity;

22 (B) the Special Cybercrimes Law on Octo-
23 ber 27, 2020, which established prison sen-
24 tences for individuals who spread information
25 online that the Government of Nicaragua deems

1 to be false or construes to cause alarm, terror,
2 or unease in the public;

3 (C) the Self-Determination Law on Decem-
4 ber 21, 2020, which provides President Ortega
5 with the authority to unilaterally declare citi-
6 zens “terrorists” or “traitors to the homeland”
7 for opposing his rule and ban them from run-8 ning for public office, effectively preventing any 9 individuals who supported the 2018 protests
10 from being candidates; and

11 (D) the reform to the Consumer Protection 12 Law on February 4, 2021, which provides the 13 Government of Nicaragua the authority to man-
14 date Nicaraguan commercial banks to overturn 15 and ignore sanctions imposed by the United 16 States with respect to persons on the list of 17 specifically designated national and blocked per-
18 sons maintained by the Office of Foreign Assets
19 Control of the Department of the Treasury.

20 (7) According to preliminary reports of the 21 Government of Nicaragua, Hurricanes Eta and Iota,
22 which made landfall in Nicaragua on November 3
23 and November 16, 2020, respectively, affected more 24 than 3,000,000 individuals and resulted in an eco-25 nomic loss in excess of $742,000,000. Indigenous

1 Miskito and Mayangna communities situated in the 2 North Caribbean Coast Autonomous Region bore the 3 brunt of the devastation, with at least 23 indigenous 4 territories and upwards of 147,000 indigenous in-5 habitants directly impacted by the weather phe-
6 nomena.

7 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

8 It is the sense of Congress that—

9 (1) ongoing efforts by the government of Presi-10 dent Daniel Ortega in Nicaragua to suppress the 11 voice and actions of civil society, political opponents, 12 and independent news media violate the fundamental 13 freedoms and basic human rights of the people of 14 Nicaragua;

15 (2) Congress unequivocally condemns the pas-
16 sage of the Foreign Agents Regulation Law, the 17 Special Cybercrimes Law, and the Self-Determina-
18 tion Law by the National Assembly of Nicaragua,
19 which represent clear attempts by the Ortega gov-20 ernment to curtail the fundamental freedoms and 21 basic human rights of the people of Nicaragua;

22 (3) Congress recognizes that free, fair, and 23 transparent elections predicated on robust reform
24 measures and the presence of domestic and inter-25 national observers represent the best opportunity for

1 the people of Nicaragua to restore democracy and 2 reach a peaceful solution to the political and social 3 crisis in Nicaragua;

4 (4) the United States should align the use of 5 diplomatic engagement and all other foreign policy
6 tools, including the use of targeted sanctions, in sup-7 port of efforts by democratic political actors and 8 civil society in Nicaragua to advance the necessary 9 conditions for free, fair, and transparent elections in 10 Nicaragua;

11 (5) the United States, in order to maximize the 12 effectiveness of efforts described in paragraph (4), 13 should—

14 (A) coordinate with diplomatic partners,
15 including the Government of Canada, the Euro-16 pean Union, and partners in Latin America and 17 the Caribbean; and

18 (B) advance diplomatic initiatives in con-
19 sultation with the OAS and the United Nations; 20 and

21 (6) pursuant to section 6(b) of the Nicaragua
22 Investment Conditionality Act of 2018, the Presi-
23 dent should waive the application of restrictions
24 under section 4 of that Act and the sanctions under 25 section 5 of that Act if the Secretary of State cer-

1 tifies that the Government of Nicaragua is taking 2 the steps identified in section 6(a) of that Act, in-3 cluding taking steps to “to hold free and fair elec-
4 tions overseen by credible domestic and international 5 observers”.

6 SEC. 4. RESTRICTIONS ON INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL IN-

7 STITUTIONS RELATING TO NICARAGUA.

8 Section 4 of the Nicaragua Investment Conditionality
9 Act of 2018 is amended—
