

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 123

Supporting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and recognizing its 70 years of accomplishments.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 27, 2019

Mr. RISCH (for himself, Mr. MENENDEZ, Mr. TILLIS, Mrs. SHAHEEN, Mr. JOHNSON, and Mr. MURPHY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Supporting the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and recognizing its 70 years of accomplishments.

1 Resolved,

2 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

3 The Senate makes the following findings:

4 (1) The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was founded on April 4, 1949, to “safe-
5 guard the freedom, common heritage and civilisation
6 of [its] peoples, founded on the principles of democ-
7 racy, individual liberty and the rule of law”.

9 (2) The United States Senate approved the 10 North Atlantic Treaty of 1949 on July 21, 1949,

1 and the United States Government acceded to mem-
2 bership in NATO on August 24, 1949.

3 (3) NATO is a community of democracies that 4 acts collectively to promote freedom, stability, and 5 peace around the globe.

6 (4) NATO has continued to welcome into its 7 membership those nations that have evinced a desire
8 to partake in the alliance's commitment to settle 9 international disputes peaceably, strengthen their 10 free institutions, promote conditions of stability and 11 well-being, and seek to eliminate conflict in their 12 international economic policies, and which are dedi-
13 cated to maintaining and developing their capacity
14 to resist armed attack.

15 (5) The sustained commitment of NATO to 16 mutual defense has made possible the democratic 17 and economic transformation of Central and Eastern 18 Europe.

19 (6) Lasting stability and security in Europe re-20 quires the further military, economic, and political 21 integration of emerging democracies into existing 22 European and transatlantic structures.

23 (7) NATO serves as a force multiplier, whose 24 command structures, training institutions, and mul-
25 tilateral exercises have generated unprecedented

1 multinational contributions to United States na-
2 tional security priorities and enabled European and 3 Canadian soldiers to fight side-by-side with members
4 of the United States Armed Forces.

5 (8) The allies invoked NATO's Article 5 collec-
6 tive defense clause and offered military assistance to 7 the United States in responding to the attacks of 8 September 11, 2001.

9 (9) NATO member nations stood in support of 10 the United States after it was attacked on Sep-
11 tember 11, 2001, sending tens of thousands troops
12 to fight alongside American soldiers in Afghanistan.

13 (10) NATO is currently involved in several op-
14 erations benefiting United States national security,
15 including Operation Resolute Support in Afghani-
16 stan, NATO's Kosovo Force (KFOR), Operation
17 Sea Guardian in the Mediterranean Sea (maritime 18 situational awareness, counter-terrorism at sea, and 19 support to capacity-building), the capacity-building
20 NATO Mission Iraq, support for African Union mis-21 sions, and air policing missions in the member and 22 nonmember nations of Eastern Europe.

23 (11) NATO members have stood against Rus-
24 sian aggression in Eastern Europe, have supported
25 United States sanctions on that country and im-

1 posed their own, have responded, as noted in the 2 NATO Brussels Summit Declaration of 2018, “to 3 the deteriorated security environment by enhancing 4 our deterrence and defence posture, including by a
5 forward presence in the eastern part of the Alli-
6 ance,” and have asserted that “there can be no re-
7 turn to ‘business as usual’ until there is a clear, con-
8 structive change in Russia’s actions that dem-
9 onstrates compliance with international law and its 10 international obligations and responsibilities”.

11 (12) The NATO Wales Summit Declaration of 12 2014 pledged, “Allies currently meeting the NATO
13 guideline to spend a minimum of 2% of their Gross
14 Domestic Product (GDP) on defence will aim to con-
15 tinue to do so . . . Allies whose current proportion
16 of GDP spent on defence is below this level will: halt
17 any decline in defence expenditure; aim to increase
18 defence expenditure in real terms as GDP grows;
19 aim to move towards the 2% guideline within a dec-
20 ade with a view to meeting their NATO Capability
21 Targets and filling NATO’s capability shortfalls.”.

22 (13) Twenty-two NATO nations have increased
23 their military spending since the Wales Declaration 24 of 2014.

(14) The NATO Brussels Summit Declaration of 2018 stated, “We reaffirm our unwavering commitment to all aspects of the Defence Investment Pledge agreed at the 2014 Wales Summit, and to submit credible national plans on its implementation, including the spending guidelines for 2024, planned capabilities, and contributions. Fair burden sharing underpins the Alliance’s cohesion, solidarity, credibility, and ability to fulfil our Article 3 and Article 5 commitments. We welcome the considerable progress made since the Wales Summit with four consecutive years of real growth in non-US defence expenditure. All Allies have started to increase the amount they spend on defence in real terms and some two-thirds of Allies have national plans in place to spend 2% of their Gross Domestic Product on defence by 2024. More than half of Allies are spending more than 20% of their defence expenditures on major equipment, including related research and development, and, according to their national plans, 24 Allies will meet the 20% guideline by 2024. Allies are delivering more of the heavier, high-end capabilities we require and are improving the readiness, deployability, sustainability, and interoperability of their forces.”.

5 (16) Allies who have recently acceded to NATO
6 are amongst the highest per capita contributors to 7 NATO missions.

(17) At the Bucharest Summit of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in April 2008, the Heads of State and Government of the member countries of NATO declared, “NATO’s ongoing enlargement process has been an historic success in advancing stability and cooperation and bringing us closer to our common goal of a Europe whole and free, united in peace, democracy and common values. NATO’s door will remain open to European democracies willing and able to assume the responsibilities and obligations of membership, in accordance with Article 10 of the Washington Treaty. We reiterate that decisions on enlargement are for NATO itself to make.”.

(19) The governments, leaders, and parliaments of Greece and the Republic of North Macedonia have ended their dispute and ratified the Prespa Agreement, resolving a long-standing bilateral dispute and establishing a strategic partnership between the two countries and clearing the way for North Macedonia's accession to NATO.

8 SEC. 2. SENSE OF THE SENATE.

9 The Senate—

1 courageous the remainder to strive to quickly reach
2 that goal;

3 (4) affirms that the Senate stands ready to con-
4 sider, if all applicable criteria are satisfied, the Re-
5 public of North Macedonia’s application to join
6 NATO;

7 (5) backs the White House’s 2017 affirmation
8 that the United States “stand[s] firmly behind Arti-
9 cle 5” of the NATO Treaty;

10 (6) welcomes former Secretary of Defense
11 James Mattis’ efforts to encourage significant 12 NATO reforms, especially regarding modernization,
13 readiness, command structure adaptation, military
14 mobility, and improving NATO’s speed of decision-
15 making to ensure the alliance remains fit for pur-16 pose; and

17 (7) reaffirms the commitment of the United
18 States to NATO’s mission, and its belief that NATO
19 is the most successful security alliance in our Na-
20 tion’s history and one that will continue to be a cor-
21 nerstone of United States security.
