

117TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 44

Denouncing the Maduro regime's fraudulent legislative elections, the absence of acceptable conditions to ensure free, fair, and transparent electoral processes in Venezuela, and the further erosion of Venezuelan democracy.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 8, 2021

Mr. RUBIO (for himself, Mr. MENENDEZ, Mr. CRUZ, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. SCOTT of Florida, and Mr. CARDIN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Denouncing the Maduro regime's fraudulent legislative elections, the absence of acceptable conditions to ensure free, fair, and transparent electoral processes in Venezuela, and the further erosion of Venezuelan democracy.

Whereas, on December 6, 2020, the regime of Nicolás Maduro held fraudulent legislative elections for Venezuela's National Assembly that did not comply with international standards for free, fair, and transparent electoral processes;

Whereas the Maduro regime sought to use fraudulent legislative elections to install a new National Assembly on January 5, 2021, in an effort to undermine Venezuela's National Assembly, which was democratically elected in 2015;

Whereas, pursuant to section 112 of the VERDAD Act of 2019 (22 U.S.C. 9702), it is the policy of the United States to recognize the democratically elected National Assembly of Venezuela, elected in December 2015 and sworn in on January 2016, as the only legitimate national legislative body in Venezuela;

Whereas the United States and more than 50 countries—including Canada, the 27 member countries of the European Union, and 21 members of the Organization of American States, among others—have expressed concern about the lack of legitimacy of the December 6, 2020, electoral process held in Venezuela and the Maduro regime’s failure to meet international standards for a free, fair, and transparent election;

Whereas, on January 6, 2021, the European Union issued a public statement on the Maduro regime’s December 6, 2020, legislative elections, stating that “the elections failed to comply with international standards” and that it does not recognize the electoral process as “credible, inclusive or transparent, nor . . . its outcome to be considered as representative of the democratic will of the Venezuelan people”;

Whereas, on January 5, 2021, members of the Lima Group—including Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Paraguay, Peru, and Venezuela—issued a joint declaration stating that the Lima Group does not “recognize the legitimacy or legality of the National Assembly installed on January 5, 2021. This illegitimate National Assembly is the product of the fraudulent elections of December 6, 2020, organized by the illegitimate regime of Nicolás Maduro.”;

Whereas, on December 8, 2020, the International Contact Group—including Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, the European Union, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Panama, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, the United Kingdom and Uruguay—issued a public declaration stating that the Maduro regime’s December 6, 2020, elections did not meet internationally accepted standards, “[n]or did they meet conditions required by Venezuelan laws,” and that “they cannot recognise the results of this electoral process as legitimate or representative of the will of the Venezuelan people”;

Whereas, on June 12, 2020, the Maduro regime’s illegitimate Supreme Court unilaterally appointed new members to Venezuela’s National Electoral Council without the approval of the democratically elected National Assembly;

Whereas, throughout 2020, the Maduro regime—

(1) sought to co-opt and undermine independent political parties through a campaign of systematic persecution; and

(2) used its discredited Supreme Court to strip independent political parties of their leadership, including Voluntad Popular, Primero Justicia, and Acción Democrática;

Whereas the Maduro regime has a demonstrated track record of holding fraudulent elections over the last four years;

Whereas, in May 2018, the Maduro regime held fraudulent presidential elections that were broadly criticized as illegitimate, leading more than 50 countries to recognize the end of Nicolás Maduro’s term in office and the inauguration of National Assembly President Juan Guaidó as Interim-President of Venezuela on January 23, 2019;

Whereas, on July 30, 2017, the Maduro regime manipulated the results for Venezuela's Constituent Assembly by more than 1,000,000 votes, according to Smartmatic, the company that supplied Venezuela's electronic voting machines;

Whereas, according to the Venezuelan constitution, Juan Guaidó, as President of the National Assembly, serves as Venezuela's Interim President in the absence of a democratically elected president of Venezuela;

Whereas the conditions do not currently exist for the free, fair, and transparent election of new members of the National Assembly or the president of Venezuela;

Whereas, as of September 7, 2020, the internationally recognized nongovernmental organization Foro Penal confirmed that, out of the 110 individuals recently released from prison by the Maduro regime to serve out the remainder of their sentences under house arrest, 53 were political prisoners, and that currently 363 political prisoners remain unjustly detained by the Maduro regime without due process;

Whereas, on September 16, 2020, the United Nations Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela found that Nicolás Maduro and senior members of his regime ordered and carried out a campaign of extrajudicial executions, forced disappearances, torture, and arbitrary detentions that amounted to systemic crimes against humanity;

Whereas the Maduro regime's efforts to hold fraudulent legislative elections, undermine the democratically elected National Assembly and independent political parties, and implement a campaign of state-sponsored violence and repression further erodes democracy and the rule of law in Venezuela; and

Whereas, as codified under section 4 of the Venezuela Defense of Human Rights and Civil Society Act (Public Law 113–278; 128 U.S.C. 3013), it is the policy of the United States “to support the people of Venezuela in their aspiration to live under conditions of peace and representative democracy as defined by the Inter-American Democratic Charter of the Organization of American States”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) denounces the Maduro regime’s fraudulent
3 legislative elections on December 6, 2020, as an ef-
4 fort to undermine Venezuela’s democratically elected
5 National Assembly;

6 (2) does not recognize the legitimacy of the Na-
7 tional Assembly installed by the Maduro regime on
8 January 6, 2021;

9 (3) joins members of the international commu-
10 nity, including members of the Lima Group, the Or-
11 ganization of American States, and the European
12 Union, in rightfully rejecting the Maduro’s regime’s
13 fraudulent and illegitimate legislative elections on
14 December 6, 2020;

15 (4) urges that presidential and legislative elec-
16 tions in Venezuela be conducted at the earliest pos-
17 sible date that conditions for international standards

1 for free, fair, and transparent electoral processes, in-
2 cluding credible international election observation,
3 can be met;

4 (5) calls on the Maduro regime to cease its
5 campaign of systematic persecution against Ven-
6 ezuela's independent political parties and their lead-
7 ership;

8 (6) calls on the Maduro regime to immediately
9 release all political prisoners, facilitate access by hu-
10 manitarian organizations, and end its campaign of 11 extrajudicial executions, forced disappearances, tor-
12 ture, and arbitrary detentions of political opponents,
13 human rights defenders, civil society activists, peace-
14 ful protesters, and citizens; and

15 (7) takes note of the finding of the United Na-
16 tions Independent International Fact-Finding Mis-
17 sion on the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela that
18 the Maduro regime's campaign of state-sponsored vi-
19 olence and repression against the people of Ven-
20 ezuela amounted to crimes against humanity, and 21 calls for Nicolás Maduro and senior members of his 22 regime to be held accountable for their actions.
